How Can CFF Help You?

Compass

Compass

- The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's patient assistance service, Compass, is a personalized service to help with the insurance, financial, legal, and other issues faced by anyone with cystic fibrosis, their family, and their care teams.
- The Compass team strives to provide excellent service to anyone living with CF or their loved ones, regardless of income or insurance status. We listen closely, explain thoroughly, and work through issues related to CF from start to finish.

Community Voice

Community Voice

PARTNER with the Foundation, researchers, and other organizations. We can't be successful without your input.

LEARN about CF Foundation projects and research through exclusive updates. Gain an insider's perspective on projects.

IMPROVE the future for the entire CF community. Your participation makes a difference.

HOW IT WORKS

- Receive customized opportunities via email
- Virtual opportunities range from filling out 5-minute surveys to sitting on a committee or focus group
- Choose when and how often you participate

How Can CFF Help You?

CF Peer Connect

CF Peer Connect

- One-to-one peer support for people with CF and their family members
- Provides people with CF and their families the opportunity to learn from someone who has been through a similar situation
- Trained mentors provide support around managing transitions and the challenges of everyday life with CF.
- Participant experience demonstrates that peer support can be especially valuable:
 - When processing news of a new diagnosis
 - When considering options related to advanced lung disease, including considering transplant
 - During times of transition such as going to college, making employment decisions, and becoming a new parent
 - For managing everyday life with CF and facing new challenges like dating, adulting, caregiver wellness, LGBTQ issues, CFRD and more!
